Rewards and Sanctions

Rewards

The school aims to promote high standards of behaviour and self-discipline through positive encouragement and rewards.

When pupils do something well their teacher will recognise this in a variety of ways including: speaking to the pupil; making a phone call home; sending a postcard and sharing the news with the Head of Year. In every lesson three pupils who have excelled in their learning will be awarded with a star. Pupils can achieve Bronze, Silver and Gold badges, based on an accumulation of stars across all subjects. Each week there is a star award draw for a £10 voucher, alongside the "Headteacher's award" for excellence. Each half term this positive behaviour is celebrated during assembly when certificates are issued, and letters are sent home to parents/carers. Positive behaviour is further celebrated through own clothes days, rewards trips and lunches. Pupils can gain Orare, Servire and Laborare awards for their contributions to the school community.

In addition, each week there is a draw for a £10 voucher for a pupil achieving 100% punctuality and attendance that week.

Sanctions

If pupils fail to meet the required high standard of behaviour, then they will be sanctioned with an 'X'. This means that the pupil will be placed in lunch time detention the following day. If pupils accumulate more than 4 X's in a week they will receive a Head of Year detention that will take place on a Friday after school for one hour. If pupils accumulate more than five 'X's within a week they will be required to attend the Head of Year Friday detention as well as a Saturday detention the following week. Pupils whose behaviour is a cause for concern will be placed 'On Report' to help monitor their behaviour and to encourage them to take responsibility for their actions. Pupils who do not complete their homework will be issued an XPW and this will lead to an hour after school detention the following day. Pupils will be expected to bring in their homework the next day to show their teacher.

Further sanctions such as internal, fixed term and permanent exclusions may also be used. The Head teacher has the right to impose any sanction that he deems appropriate and proportional, and in line with the school's Behaviour Policy.
